SUBJECT: NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY
RACIAL MATTERS
(OO: New York)

On 6/20/63, LOUIS BRIEGEL, secretary, Camping Services, and PAUL WILCOX, associate general secretary of the YMCA, 600 Broad Street, Newark, New Jersey, appeared at the Newark Office of the FBI and furnished the following information:

A few days previously, [redacted] contacted the YMCA to inquire whether or not [redacted] would be retained as a YMCA camp counselor at Camp Kiamisha during the summer. She explained that her [redacted] son, [redacted] was at Camp Kiamisha during the summer of 1962, and there met a camp counselor by the name of [redacted]

After [redacted] returned home from camp, he received a series of letters from [redacted] and subsequently in February of 1963, was personally visited by [redacted]

[redacted] stated that while cleaning her son's room recently, she came upon certain anti-Negro and anti-Semitic literature, which her son had admitted he had received from [redacted]. She stated further that during [redacted] visit to her home, she overheard [redacted] giving her son instructions on how to get to 10 West 90th Street in New York City, which she noted from the literature is the headquarters of the National Renaissance Party.

BRIEGEL advised that [redacted] was a camp counselor at Camp Kiamisha during the past summer and that he again made such application for such employment this summer. BRIEGEL stated that in view of the information received from [redacted] his application for employment would be rejected.

Neo-Nazi Jailed 5 Days For Clubbing Detective

A Nazi-like demonstration complete with imitations of Nazi storm trooper uniforms had its sequel six weeks later in Criminal Court yesterday when the flagbearer of the "American Renaissance Party" was sentenced to five days in the workhouse. The row was May 25 in Yorkville.

Louis V. Mostaccio, 37, a restaurant worker, was found guilty of clubbing Detective John P. Keeney, of the Manhattan North burglary squad, using the pole to which his red, white and black "thunderbolt" flag was attached. The "thunderbolt," a jagged lightning streak, occupied the space on the flag where Hitler used to impose his swastika.

Mostaccio's attack on the plainclothes policeman was not wholly an affair of his own free doing. His assignment in the Renaissance Party was to provide a physical defense for the agitators of the corps as they upbraided Jews and Negroes.

As a Yorkville mob of 5,000 engulfed Mostaccio and his friends—there were only a half dozen in the neo-Nazi group—Mr. Mostaccio stoutly laid about himself, banging every head and shoulder within a five-foot range. He cut Mr. Keeney's hand. The policeman identified himself and arrested the mortified Mr. Mostaccio. He did not know whom he was smiting, the restaurant worker explained.

Neo-Nazis in Riot Plot Get a Delay Until Aug. 6

Cases against eight members of the neo-Nazi National Renaissance Party, accused of conspiring to incite riots during picketing at White Castle diners in the Bronx, were adjourned yesterday in Bronx Criminal Court until Aug. 6.

One of the bully boys, Anthony Wells, 26, of 541 E. 20th St., failed to appear. It was explained he was a bronchial patient in Manhattan General Hospital.

The self-styled troopers allegedly attempted to stir up a storm July 14 at the diners, where Congress of Racial Equality members were picketing.

One defendant, Paul Joachim, 35, of 10 Downing St., was collared after his court appearance on a scofflaw charge. He was released in $100 bail for trial Sept. 16.

IS-X; RACIAL MATTERS

Enclosed herewith for the Bureau is an amended characterization of captioned organization;

On 7/16/63, a source stated that the National Renaissance Party (NRP) is an anti-Semitic, anti-Christian, anti-Negro and neo-Fascist organization, with activities generally confined to the NYC area. It was founded in 1949, by JAMES H. MADOLE, who is in complete control of the party. The party's main function is distribution of the National Renaissance Bulletin on a bi-monthly basis and distribution of pro-Arab literature obtained from official Arab establishments in NYC.

The source further stated that the headquarters for the NRP is located in the residence of JAMES H. MADOLE, at 10 W. 90th St., NYC.

The Un-American Activities Committee of the US House of Representatives in a Preliminary Report dated 12/17/54, stated NRP activities and propaganda are clearly subversive and un-American.

Re New York teletypes to Bureau dated 7/14/63, captioned as above, reflecting that eight members of captioned organization had been arrested by the NYCPD 7/14/63 subsequent to efforts of the group to counter-picket the CORE integration pickets at the White Castle Diner in the Bronx. According to information received from BSS, NYCPD, the members of the group were arrested on charges of inciting to riot, illegal possession of weapons, and anarchy.

Today, Mr. ISIDORE DOLLINGER, District Attorney of Bronx County, telephonically contacted Assistant Director J. F. MALONE and suggested the FBI might be interested in the anarchy charge which had been filed against these subjects. Mr. DOLLINGER said that the anarchy charge was based on a statement made by one of the arrested subjects to the effect that the purpose of the NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY was the overthrow of the Government. While this is contrary to the provisions of the New York State statute, Mr. DOLLINGER thought we might be interested since such activity would also be very likely in violation of a federal statute.

Mr. DOLLINGER said that the case involving these subjects is being handled by Assistant Bronx County District Attorney FARRELL, Edmund C. 851 GRAND CONCOURSE, LUG-9500

We should immediately ascertain the details of the anarchy charge filed against these subjects, together with details of the statement allegedly made by one of these subjects that this organization had as its purpose the overthrow of the Government. Thereafter, an interview of the subject or subjects would be in order; however, because of the present prosecutive action being taken against these subjects by New York State and because this entire incident grew out of and is closely allied to the current racial situation, we should clear with the Bureau before interviewing these subjects. However, we should obtain all necessary facts from the NYCPD and from the Bronx County DA's office prior to taking this up with the Bureau.

In view of the Bureau's current interest in these matters, this matter should be expedited.

SUBJECT: NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY

On 7/16/63, [REDACTED] Bureau of Special Services, NYCPD, advised that the anarchy charge placed against JAMES H. MADOLE, National Renaissance Party (NRP) leader, and the seven others who were arrested by the NYCPD on 7/14/63 was based on an assumption by Assistant District Attorney MORRIS WEINTRAUB, Bronx, N.Y. that literature in the possession of those arrested and published by the NRP, called for the overthrow of the government. [REDACTED] stated that the NRP ~~had~~/has never made any statements advocating the overthrow of the government.

[REDACTED] further stated that he has no knowledge that any of those arrested made any statement that the NRP advocated the overthrow of the government. [REDACTED] stated that it is possible that [REDACTED] who was among those ~~arrested~~ arrested might have made such a statement to the District Attorney but what he might have based it on [REDACTED] could not state.

[REDACTED] stated that he had selected [REDACTED] as the one likely to give such a statement to the District Attorney because [REDACTED] seemed to be telling the District Attorney a lot about the operations of the NRP even though [REDACTED] was never a member of the NRP and was merely a friend of [REDACTED] NRP member, and [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated that in his opinion there is absolutely no basis for the anarchy charge against the NRP members.

NATIONAL STATES RIGHTS PARTY (NSRP)

On November 26, 1957, a source advised that the United White Party (UWP) was organized at a convention held in Knoxville, Tennessee, on November 10, 1957. An article in November 26, 1957 issue of the "Greenville Piedmont," a newspaper of Greenville, South Carolina, reported "the recent formation of a new political party to be known as the United White Party." According to the article, the party was formed at a recently held meeting in Knoxville, Tennessee, at which many klansmen were represented. The UWP was reported as being opposed to all "race mixing organizations and individuals."

The July, 1958 issue of "The Thunderbolt," self-described as the "official Racial Nationalist Organ of the National States Rights Party," reported that rank and file "States Righters" had merged with the UWP under "the banner of the National States Rights Party," with national offices at Post Office Box 261, Jeffersonville, Indiana.

In November, 1958, a source advised that the NSRP is composed of past members of klan-type organizations and notorious anti-Semites.

Issue Number 19, dated June, 1960, "The Thunderbolt," announced the address of the headquarters of the NSRP had been changed from Jeffersonville, Indiana, to Post Office Box 783, Birmingham, Alabama.

On June 17, 1960, a source advised that Edward R. Fields, the Information Director of the NSRP, is the individual who "runs the NSRP."

"The Thunderbolt" continues to publish articles attacking Negroes and persons of the Jewish faith.

Indict 8 Neo-Nazis on Anarchy

By EDWARD DILLON

A Bronx County grand jury yesterday indicted eight members of the National Renaissance Party, a neo-Nazi hate group, on charges of criminal anarchy, inciting to riot and Sullivan Law violation.

The eight were arrested last month and accused of sparking illegal activities at the site of the racially motivated White Castle diners in the Bronx.

One Signs Waiver

Seven of the eight were arraigned in Bronx Supreme Court before Judge Samuel Silverman and pleaded not guilty. The eighth, who signed a waiver of immunity and testified before the grand jury, will be arraigned later. His name was not disclosed.

The seven arraigned yesterday were James A. Madole, 36, 10 W. 90th St., reputed fuhrer of the NRP; Edward Cassidy, 18, 348 W. 49th St.; Paul Joachim, 35, 16 Downing St.; Anthony Wells, 25, 541 E. 20th St.; Ian Lehr, 21, 630 Schenectady Ave., Brooklyn;

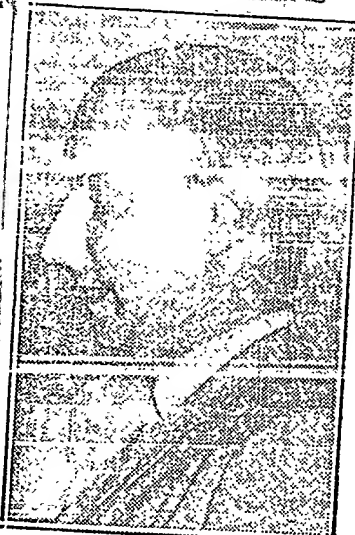

Peter H. Krauss, 18, 72-14 66th Road, Middle Village, Queens, and Daniel Burros, 23, 152 W. 42d St., reportedly Madole's second in command.

Madole was continued in $7,500 bail. The others, except Cassidy, were continued in $5,000 bail. Cassidy, whose bail originally was set at $5,000 but who has been in jail since his arrest because he could not post bond, had his bail reduced to $2,500.

Wanted Higher Bail

Assistant Bronx District Attorney Farrell urged $10,000 bail for each, saying they were unmarried, were seeking to overthrow the government and would possibly not appear for trial. The judge rejected his plea.

The defendants face up to 10 years in jail on the anarchy count alone.

NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY
INTERNAL SECURITY - X;
RACIAL MATTERS

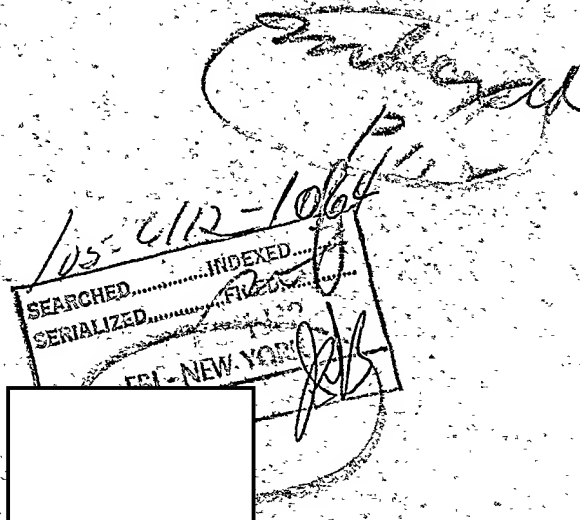

Assistant District Attorney Edmund Farrell, Supreme Court, Bronx County, Bronx, New York, advised on August 16, 1963, that the following 8 persons were indicted by a Bronx County Grand Jury on charges advocacy of criminal anarchy, attempted riot, violation of Public Law 1897 (carrying firearms), and subdivisions of Public Law 3 and 6 (carrying weapons):

Paul Joachim
10 Downing Street
New York, New York

✓ James H. Maddala
10 West 90th Street
New York, New York

National Renaissance Party

~~Daniel Burros~~
152 West 42nd Street
New York, New York

The indictment, which was made available by District Attorney Isidore Bollinger, on August 16, 1963, reflects that the first of 5 counts in this indictment is advocacy of criminal anarchy. This charge is a violation set forth in the New York State Penal Code, Sections 160-164.

The first count states the defendants, acting together, on or about July 13 and 14, 1963, by word of mouth, and through the use of literature, advised and taught the duty, necessity, and propriety of overthrowing the organized government by force and violence.

Assistant District Attorney Farrell stated that the defendants advised detectives subsequent to their arrest that their purpose in passing out pamphlets and literature was to convince the public of their (National Renaissance Party) objectives, and after convincing the public, they would have the government adopt their resolutions. These resolutions, being in part, the deportation of the Negro from the United States, and the confiscation of property and property rights of the Jewish people.

Assistant District Attorney Farrell stated that, in effect, the present form of government would never accept the principle of depriving groups of persons of their rights, as mentioned above, and that another form of government would have to exist before these resolutions could become a fact. A government as such, according to Farrell, could only come about through force and violence. Therefore, according to Farrell, the activities on the part of the defendants could be construed as criminal anarchy under the laws of New York State.

National Renaissance Party

Farrell advised the precedents he uses for this case is "People v. Gitlow", 135 Appellate Division, page 773, affirmed in 234 New York page 132.

The case "People v. Gitlow" was decided on April 1, 1921, where Gitlow, an owner and publisher of "The Revolutionary Age", a paper devoted to international Communist struggle was convicted of criminal anarchy under Sections 160-166 in the New York State Penal Law.

He published a manifesto advocated the overthrow of the government, State and National, not by constitutional means, but by revolution brought about by mass strike which must of necessity involve violence.

Both District Attorney Dollinger and Assistant District Attorney Farrell advised they did not expect the Grand Jury to issue a true bill on the anarchy count. Farrell stated, however, that although there was no evidence of a concrete nature supporting their charges on anarchy, he felt that their office had a good chance of success of prosecuting this case based on the precedents of the "People v. Gitlow" case.

8 IN FASCIST GROUP INDICTED IN BRONX

Criminal Anarchy, Weapons and Riot Charges Denied

Eight members of a neo-Nazi organization, arrested a month ago and accused of plotting riots at White Castle hamburger stands in the Bronx, were indicted yesterday on charges of advocating criminal anarchy, attempting to riot and violating the Sullivan Law on weapons.

When the defendants were arrested July 15, the police seized a cache of arms that included rifles and shotguns, revolvers, thousands of rounds of ammunition, a crossbow, bottles of nitric acid, machetes and bayonets.

All of those arraigned in Bronx Supreme Court yesterday pleaded not guilty to the charges. One of the defendants, whose name was not disclosed, has been indicted on the charges but has not been arrested.

Judge Samuel J. Silverman, set no date for trial but continued the defendants in bail ranging from $2,500 to $7,500. Those arraigned were:

James H. Madole, 36 years old, of 10 West 90th Street; Paul Joachim 35, of 10 Downing Street; Peter Krauss, 18, of 72-14 66th Road, Middle Village, Queens; Ian Lehr, 21, of 630 Schenectady Avenue, Brooklyn; Anthony Wells, 28, of 541 East 20th Street; Daniel Burros, 26, of 152 West 42d Street, and Edward Cassidy, 18, of 348 West 49th Street.

The police said they were all members of the National Renaissance party, a Fascist group.

During the flare-up of racial tension between pickets and hecklers outside the White Castles last month, three of the group were arrested when they went to a police station to complain that a picket had assaulted them.

When the police questioned them, they said they learned that the three were members of the neo-Nazi group. The truck they had been riding in was searched and part of the arms cache was found in it. The rest was seized at the home of one of the group.

District Attorney Isador Dolinger of the Bronx said he considered "the prosecution of these individuals, who are closely connected with the American Renaissance party, a Nazi movement—to be of the utmost importance."

Indict 8 Neo-Nazis on Anarchy

By EDWARD DILLON

A Bronx County grand jury yesterday indicted eight members of the National Renaissance Party, a neo-Nazi hate group, on charges of criminal anarchy, inciting to riot and Sullivan Law violation.

The eight were arrested last month and accused of sparking illegal activities at the site of the racially embattled White Castle diners in the Bronx.

One Signs Waiver

Seven of the eight were arraigned in Bronx Supreme Court before Judge Samuel Silverman and pleaded not guilty. The eighth, who signed a waiver of immunity and testified before the grand jury, will be arraigned later. His name was not disclosed.

The seven arraigned yesterday were James A. Madole, 36, 10 W. 90th St., reputed fuhrer of the NRP; Edward Cassidy, 18, 348 W. 49th St.; Paul Joachim, 35, 16 Downing St.; Anthony Wells, 25, 541 E. 20th St.; Ian Lehr, 21, 630 Schenectady Ave., Brooklyn;

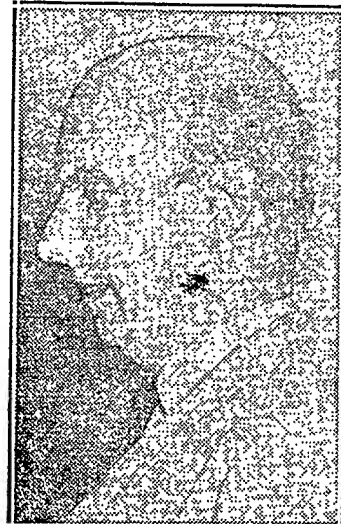

Peter H. Krauss, 18, 72-14 66th Road, Middle Village, Queens, and Daniel Burros, 26, 152 W. 42d St., reportedly Madole's second in command.

Madole was continued in $7,500 bail. The others, except Cassidy, were continued in $5,000 bail. Cassidy, whose bail originally was set at $5,000 but who has been in jail since his arrest because he could not post bond, had his bail reduced to $2,500.

8 Neo-Nazis Indicted

A Bronx grand jury has indicted eight members of a neo-Nazi group on charges of anarchy. The eight were arrested last month as they counter-picketed CORE demonstrators at a White Castle diner on Boston Rd. and Allerton Av. Police confiscated a large store of weapons and hate literature from a panel truck driven by two of the neo-Nazis.

Re: American Nazi Party

On August 20, 1963, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past, made available a copy of the August 15, 1963, issue of the "Intra-Party Confidential Newsletter", a publication of the American Nazi Party (ANP), 928 North Randolph Street, Arlington, Virginia. He added that this newsletter is usually written by George Lincoln Rockwell, self styled National Commander of the ANP, however, it appears that the current issue was written by another ANP member.

The following information appears in this newsletter:

"Dozens of speaking invitations for the Commander have been pouring into here from universities, and groups of towns-people in Southern Virginia. Lack of money will prevent the Commander from keeping all but a few relatively close engagements."

It was mentioned that "the nation's most controversial speakers, including Commander Rockwell, have been invited to attend a sort of 'convention' soon at Trenton College in Trenton, New Jersey, called by a student group. The 'convention' is to allow the controversial speakers to explain to students why they should be allowed to address students at various universities. Because of their controversial natures, all of the speakers have been banned numerous times at various universities. This will enable them to speak against such bans and should have the end result of getting the Nazi viewpoint before more people."

Re: American Nazi Party

It was pointed out that James Madole and several members of his National Renaissance Party (NRP) were recently arrested in New York City and added that "although we are in sharp disagreement with the NRP on ideological and tactical points, we will never hesitate to go to bat for any fighters for the White Race when they are being unjustly persecuted." The facts of this arrest were set forth as follows:

"Last July 14, three members of the NRP were arrested by a Bronx police station, where they had gone to complain of being assaulted by niggers at a White Castle restaurant, being picketed by the niggers. Special 'anti-Nazi' police claim they found guns in the truck the men arrived in, whereupon ALL the men were arrested for 'Criminal anarchy', 'inciting to riot', 'conspiracy', 'working to overthrow the government' and violation of the weapons law. Not satisfied with this, a few hours later, the Nazi haters went off on a hysterical arrest tangent, barging into people's homes, and grabbing James Madole, NRP leader, a few more of his members, and American Nazi Party Lt. Tony Wells, who was in New York, on leave, and visiting with his mother at the time! Everyone was charged with the same ridiculous charges of 'criminal anarchy', 'conspiracy' and the rest. Bail was set as high as $7,500 for some, and $5,000 for the rest. The brave White Men were all locked in the clink. Knowing the crazy charges wouldn't hold water, the 'Anti-Nazi' cops tried to beatt the men into signing phony confessions. Lt. Tony Wells reports he was beaten unmercifully, in an attempt to get him to confess to all kinds of 'conspiracies', some of which would have involved Commander Rockwell and other Party officers. But Lt. Wells courageously stood fast, despite the beating. When bail was finally raised, it was necessary to rush Lt. Wells to the hospital because of the injuries incurred in jail. (This writer saw the gashes and bruises on his body) Among the 'weapons' confiscated in the second 'arsenal' was a collection of inoperable relics, including a crossbow, from the various wars in history. This belonged to the brother of one of those arrested, whose hobby is war-souvenir collecting."

Re: American Nazi Party

"All those in New York area should assist Lt. Wells, who can be contacted at Box 49, New York 9, New York".

"The Keep America White Committee, Box 738, Glendale, California, which has been doing a 'terrific job', has been blasted by the 'Jew-press' as a 'Nazi front' which is actually run by Lt. Ralph Forbes, West Coast leader of the American Nazi Party. Californians: A word to the wise is sufficient."

(A second source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Post Office Box 738, Glendale, California, was rented on June 26, 1963, by Ralph Forbes for the ANP, 928 North Randolph Street, Arlington, Virginia. He added that literature using this box number has been distributed under the title "Citizens to Keep Glendale White Committee.")

The State of New Hampshire has announced that it is going to conduct an investigation of the ANP and Commander Rockwell has offered to be of full assistance. "Such investigations, of course, give us wide publicity and a tremendous opportunity to present our views to the public. The State of Florida also plans to conduct an investigation and latest word has it that they'll even fly the Commander down there to testify."

The following was stated with respect to conservatives who have started to lend their support to the ANP:

"Yes, one by one former conservatives, or rather ex-conservatives, are beginning to give up 'nice' methods in favor of the more practical up-to-date Gas Chamber approach to the problem of Jew traitors. Last week saw another top conservative come around, though we cannot announce it yet. We are taking all precautions to protect his identity until the proper moment."

Characterizations of the ANP and the NRP are attached.

AMERICAN NAZI PARTY, Also Known As World Union of Free
Enterprise National Socialists,
George Lincoln Rockwell Party

A source advised on February 27, 1959 that George Lincoln Rockwell of Arlington, Virginia had held an organizational meeting of the World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (WUFENS) at his residence on February 26, 1959.

Six persons were present and they, according to the source, comprised the beginning of an officer corps of the organization. Rockwell told those present that WUFENS would be an international movement, but that the section of the organization in the United States would be known as the American Party of the WUFENS.

Rockwell, on March 26, 1959, furnished to Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, a copy of the program of the WUFENS, stating that he expected to become the President of the United States through the organization's platform. The main tenets of WUFENS, as reflected in the program, call for the migration of Negroes to Africa and the trial and execution of all Jews guilty of Communist and Zionist treason.

A second source advised on August 15, 1962 that the main activity of the organization in furtherance of these objectives has consisted of picketings with anti-Jewish and anti-Negro placards; talks by Rockwell attacking Jews as traitors to the United States; attempts by Rockwell to form Nazi groups in various cities in the United States; and attempts to form a group of international sympathizers. Rockwell prints large amounts of Nazi literature at American Nazi Party Headquarters, 928 North Randolph Street, Arlington, Virginia.

On June 29, 1962, the State of Virginia revoked the Charter of the American Nazi Party.

On September 20, 1962, the State Corporation Commission of Virginia issued a charter for a "George

The second source mentioned above advised on September 24, 1962, that Rockwell will continue to carry on his activities, using the name American Nazi Party and he obtained the Charter for the George Lincoln Rockwell Party merely to be able to do business as a corporation.

APPENDIX

NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY

On May 9, 1962, a source stated that the National Renaissance Party (NRP) is an anti-Semitic, anti-Christian, anti-Negro and neo-Fascist organization, with activities generally confined to the New York City area. It was founded in 1949 by James H. Madole, who is in complete control of the Party. The Party's main function is distribution of the "National Renaissance Bulletin" on a bi-monthly basis and distribution of pro-Arab literature obtained from official Arab establishments in New York City.

The source further stated that the headquarters for the NRP is located in the residence of James H. Madole at 10 West 90th Street, New York City.

The Un-American Activities Committee of the United States House of Representatives in a Preliminary Report, dated December 17, 1954, stated, "National Renaissance Party activities and propaganda are clearly subversive and un-American."

Hill Legion Post Faces Expulsion

By SHERM WILLIAMS

(Copyright, 1963, Independent Press-Telegram)

Signal Hill American Legion Post No. 490—which has been used as a front for an underground hate group—faces expulsion from the national veterans' organization, The Independent Press-Telegram has learned exclusively.

The state executive committee of the Legion, in a virtually unprecedented action last week, called on the Signal Hill post to turn in its charter for cancellation or stand trial.

Of the militantly anti-Communist veterans organization's 812 posts in California, only one other since World War II has been threatened with cancellation of its charter.

Jack A. Stockman, state assistant, told the I.P.T. from the Legion's San Francisco headquarters that a resolution saying the 130-member post's charter should be surrendered was mailed to local officers Aug. 20.

IF IT is not surrendered, Stockman said, the resolution calls for a hearing and a trial to determine whether the charter should be canceled, suspended or revoked.

The state executive committee is made up of top department officers of the Legion. Although not the legislative body of the Legion, it is empowered to act on emergencies between conventions.

STOCKMAN said the present executive committee was acting on recommendations made by its predecessor, which established a special committee to investigate the Signal Hill situation.

The resolution, Stockman said, gave no reason for the action but was based on the special committee report. The report will be kept secret until the Legion trial, "if the trial proves necessary," Stockman said.

THIS reporter, in an investigation that extended over a period of months, established that the post was being used by at least some of its members as a front for the supersecret California Rangers, an armed underground guerrilla group.

Gale, Joseph King, 30, of Long Beach, a member of the Rangers, arrested earlier this month for selling automatic weapons to federal agents, is a member of the Signal Hill Legion Post.

Col. William Gale, who is a Constitution Party candidate for governor in 1958, received 2,301 votes of 255,777 cast, is head of the Rangers. He transferred his Legion membership from a Beverly Hills post to the Signal Hill post earlier this year.

AT A MEETING held in Signal Hill City Hall, across the street from the Legion post's modest quarters, post officers hastily got the regular order of Legion business out of the way, adjourned, then listened to a speech by Gale.

On the table in the rear of the meeting hall was literature, including some issued by the National Renaissance Party, a neo-Nazi organization based in New York.

Members of the Renaissance Party, headed by Vincent Madole, were arrested in New York recently when it was discovered they carried an arsenal with them while harassing an integrationist picket line.

OTHER literature made available from a contact within the post included the National States Rights Party, Thunderbolt, one of the more virulent hate sheets in the country, Common Sense, considered by some as the worst of the nation's hate sheets, and a plethora of other hate literature, including some written by agents for foreign countries.

The California Senate fact-finding subcommittee on un-American activities calls the NSRP "more potentially dangerous than any of the American Nazi groups."

THIS WRITER was told by one Signal Hill Post member—who was recruiting members—that the Post accepted only "White Christian Americans." The spokesman also was a member of the Rangers. He said each prospective member was investigated by the post to determine his religion.

At least some members of the post wear small gold crosses to specify they will deal only with "Christians."

COL. WILLIAM GALE
Head of Rangers

The member who attempted to recruit this writer professed an admiration for the Rev. Wesley Swift, onetime lecturer for the Ku Klux Klan and more recently a factor in the California Rangers.

BASED ON attendance at post meetings, many of the members could be unaware of the activities of the extremists in the post.

C. Eunice Monroe, who became the post's first woman commander and served two terms from 1956 to 1958, recently was re-elected. She replied angrily to the State Legion resolution.

"People have been heckling us for three years. If you ever find out what the charges are, would you let us know?" she asked.

"We want to be brought to trial. We want to know what the charges are before we go to court and who made them.

"I did hear by way of the grapevine," she said, "that we were too far to the right."

MRS. MONROE and Robert R. Collins were listed as commander and adjutant of the post respectively by Stockman. He said that, contrary to custom, names of other Signal Hill officers were not placed on file with state headquarters.

Mrs. Monroe refused to reveal their names when asked.

Stockman said under Legion procedure the post has 30 days to reply to the executive committee resolution.

IS-X; RACIAL MATTERS

Enclosed herewith for the Bureau is an amended characterization of captioned organization:

On 7/16/63, a source stated that the National Renaissance Party (NRP) is an anti-Semitic, anti-Christian, anti-Negro and neo-Fascist organization, with activities generally confined to the NYC area. It was founded in 1949, by JAMES H. MADOLE, who is in complete control of the party. The party's main function is distribution of the National Renaissance Bulletin on a bi-monthly basis and distribution of pro-Arab literature obtained from official Arab establishments in NYC.

The source further stated that the headquarters for the NRP is located in the residence of JAMES H. MADOLE, at 10 W. 90th St., NYC.

The Un-American Activities Committee of the US House of Representatives in a Preliminary Report dated 12/17/54, stated NRP activities and propaganda are clearly subversive and un-American.

I must presume you are fully aware of their activities which I consider completely Un-American and possibly treasonous.

Since they employ the U.S. mail to advocate such vicious and unlawful action perhaps the evidence will be valuable to you.

3 Arrested After Charging They Were Harassed by Pickets at White Castle

By MARTIN ARNOLD

Three members of a neo-Nazi organization were arrested early yesterday outside a police station where they had gone to complain that they had been attacked by pickets at a Bronx White Castle hamburger stand.

The police said that they had found a cache of arms—including a new crossbow, steel-tipped arrows, a revolver, a flare gun, a derringer and a tear-gas pencil—in the men's truck after the three had driven to the Benedict Avenue police station.

They were charged with anarchy, among other things.

Later yesterday, the police questioned five other members of the organization, including one man who was said to own 10 guns and several thousand rounds of ammunition.

Meanwhile, picketing and a sit-in demonstration sponsored by the Congress of Racial Equality continued at a White Castle stand at Boston Post Road and Allerton Avenue, the Bronx, the scene of several outbreaks of violence during the week. Picketing also continued at another White Castle at Bruckner and Soundview Avenues, the Bronx.

Sit-In Continues

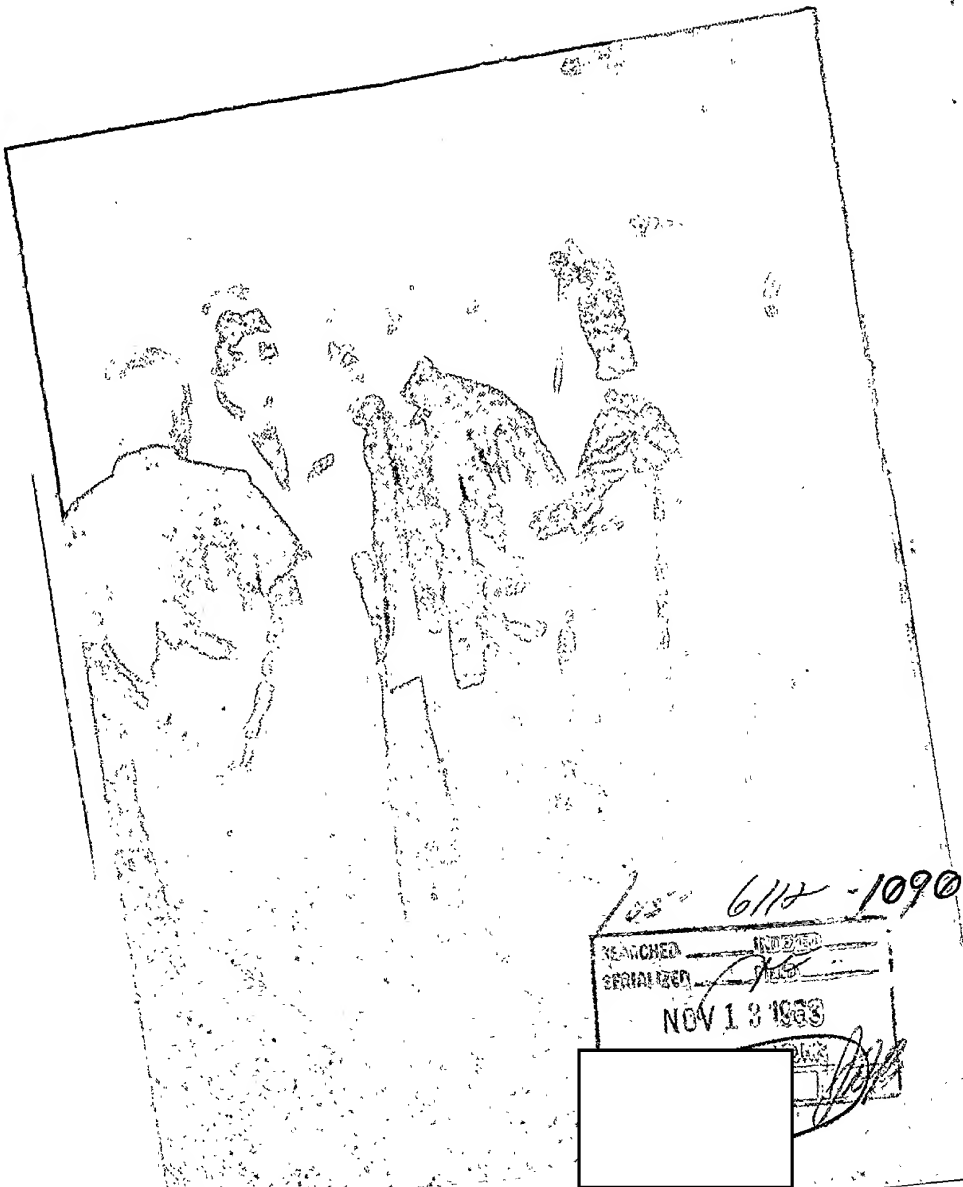

The White Castle demonstrations seek more jobs for Negroes and Puerto Ricans.

In other developments, members of the Joint Committee for Equal Employment Opportunity continued their sit-in and sleep-in in front of Mayor Wagner's office. The Rev. Robert Kiloach, pastor of the Chapel of the Free Spirit, 3420 Park Avenue, the Bronx, conducted an interfaith service for a sit-in group at Governor Rockefeller's office, 24 West 55th Street.

The Greater New York Coordinating Committee for Equal Opportunity announced that it would move in Federal Court Wednesday to force the state and the city to suspend all construction work in which there is job discrimination. And in For Rockaway, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People conducted a "freedom" rally.

The three arrested men were members of the National Renaissance Party, according to Fortheargester August Horan. They were charged with conspiracy attempting to incite a riot and possession of the Sullivan...

"a subversive organization that advocates the overthrow of the Government."

They were identified as Edward Cassidy, 18 years old, of 849 West 48th Street, alleged "Bo. 3 man" in the party; Paul Joachim, 35, of 10 Downing Street, and John Corrigan, 20, of 360 East 30th Street.

Their Bronx adventure apparently began in a Manhattan apartment early Saturday evening when the three met with five others to discuss means of causing a disturbance at the White Castle, the police, who told the following story, said.

They arrived in the vicinity of the Soundview Avenue White Castle at 9 P.M. Saturday in a small, foreign, yellow truck to distribute hate literature and were promptly chased away by a group of Negro men.

But by this time all police in the borough had been alerted to be on the lookout for the yellow truck.

Complain of Attack

How and where they spent the next six hours remained a mystery. But shortly before 4 A.M. they arrived in the truck at the police station, near the Cross Bronx Expressway, to complain that they had been attacked by pickets and that a window of their truck had been broken.

ARSENAL OF NAZIS The Soundview Avenue police station in the Bronx displays crossbow and other weapons taken from truck used by three arrested members of the National Renaissance Party. Among the items are steel-tipped arrows, pistols, a razor, an assortment of knives, flashlights, tear-gas weapons and a brush hook.

In the truck they found an eight-and-a-half-inch blade crossbow, the steel-tipped arrows, a five-inch switchblade, some 22-caliber re-straight razors, a box of flashlights, a flare, a box of 22-caliber hollow-point bullets, a tear-gas pencil, a tear-gas, 3 hollow-point bullets, a hood and a Navy foul-weather mask. police said they found a crossbow, a five-inch switchblade, a box of flashlights, a flare, a box of 22-caliber hollow-point bullets, a tear-gas pencil, a tear-gas, 3 hollow-point bullets, a hood and a Navy foul-weather mask. Among this assortment, the

The police also found twenty unanswered parking and traffic tickets in the truck.

One piece of literature said "Negro blood destroyed the civilizations of Egypt, India, Persia, Carthage, Greece and Rome. It will destroy America."

A bill of sale for the crossbow showed that it had been purchased in a sporting-goods store in Bridgeport, Conn., on Friday. It said that the bow had a thrust of 10 pounds and could kill the game with steel-tipped arrows or a swordfish.

The three told the police that they needed the weapons in the truck to defend themselves in the event of trouble, the police Brooklyn.

But their lawyer, John D. Graves, of 213 East 55th Street, said, "These are trumped-up charges. The police are looking for glory." He added that the weapons that the police said were in the truck were "non-existent."

The police said that they had found cards in Cassidy's shoes describing him also as a member of the American Nazi party, which is headed by George Lincoln Rockwell, and the International Fascist Party.

Cassidy was told to hold the rank of "major" in the Renaissance Party, said his headquarters at 10 West 80th Street. It was the party that was involved in the recent disturbance in Yorkville.

Morris D. Weintraub, assistant Bronx district attorney, said the police were also investigating the possibility that the three men were involved in the shooting of a man last Wednesday night with a pellet gun near the Boston Post Road White Castle.

5 Held for Questioning

Later yesterday, the police held for questioning five other members of the National Renaissance Party, including James H. Madole, the party's director. Madole, 38, lives at 10 West 80th Street.

The others were Daniel Burros, 26, of 152 West 42d Street; Anthony Wells, 26, of 541 East 20th Street; Peter Krauss, 18, of 72-14 88th Road, Middle Village, Queens; and Ian Lehr, 21, of 630 Schenectady Avenue, Brooklyn.

Lehr was identified as a clerk for the New York State Department of Taxation and Finance. He was accompanied to the Benedict Avenue station by his father, who declined to give his name, but who was close to tears and was shaking his head, saying, "and I'm Jewish too."

Inspector Harris said that "thousands and thousands of rounds of ammunition," eight rifles, a sawed-off 22-caliber rifle and a zip gun had been found in Krauss's apartment.

Krauss is an apprentice mechanic. Wells a clerk in a tax-the White and Madole were arrested in the shooting. The shooting among the eight men was held in Madole's apartment, the police said.

Harassing Charged

Meanwhile, the demonstrations at the White Castle hamburger stands continued, quiet for the most part.

However, Mr. Kinloch charged that the management of the White Castle on Boston Post Road had turned off the stand's air-conditioning early in the morning and turned up the steam heat to make it unbearable for the sit-ins.

He said that the temperature soared to 113 degrees in the White Castle, causing "several demonstrators to pass out" and that they "were taken on stretchers to the hospital."

A Jacob Hospital spokesman reported that three demonstrators had been treated for "solar heat stroke" and released.

White Castle employees escaped the heat by going to another room where the temperature was normal, he said.

At 10:30 A.M., a Negro picket, Mrs. Sarah Day, 64, of 2819 Barker Avenue, the Bronx, filed a complaint against the White Castle, Theodore Clark, 30, of 1819 Clinton Avenue, the Bronx.

She accused him of picking her with a nightstick when she sought shelter from the rain under the stand's awning.

Clark then filed a complaint against Mrs. Day, who was arrested on a charge of ed by Mr. Madole, NRP Leader, he took radical steps which led to the dissolution of the Elite Guard.

The new uniformed guard force was formed several months ago bearing the name Security Echelon. The SE has much more discipline and rigid standards than its predecessor. The SE has a date with destiny.

SE on the March

The first unit of the reorganized Security Echelon of the National Renaissance Party bears the name "SE Battalion Thomas Paine". "SE Battalion Thomas Paine" has already maintained order at several halls in the Yorkville area where the NRP has held rallies.

Under the dynamic leadership of US Marine veteran Frederick E. Jones, the SE is expanding rapidly and attracting many fine young idealists.

Join the SE

If you are a white male American between the ages of 17 and 35, in good physical condition, and interested in the welfare of your nation and race, you belong in the SE. (Jews being non-white are of course barred)

Anyone in the New York area interested in joining the SE should contact "SE Battalion Thomas Paine" at NRP Headquarters.

Those outside of New York can either make the trip here, or make arrangements to receive a visit from a representative of the SE Main Office. Under NO circumstances, should an SE unit be established without the supervision of the Main Office.

The Main Office will furnish all units with armbands, banners, and rank badges as they become available. Please do not become impatient at any delay in receiving your items. The SE is growing so rapidly that it is difficult for logistics to keep up.

SE dues are one dollar per week. Exceptions are made for unemployed men, and those with special problems. Uniform accessories must be bought in addition to dues.

Racial Matters

On November 18, 1963, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that on Sunday, November 17, 1963, a meeting addressed by James H. Madole, leader of the National Renaissance Party (NRP) was held from 3:00 p. m. to 6:00 p. m. at the African Universal Church, 3802 Third Avenue, New York City, a Negro church. According to the source, Madole appeared at the invitation of the members of this church and was but one of the persons who appeared as speakers. In addition to Madole, the source advised that speakers included Bishop Addison, Negro clergyman, Mrs. C. C. Addison, who was dressed in nun's garb and who is the wife of Bishop Addison, William Hoff, self-identified as New York State representative of the National States' Rights Party (NSRP), and Doctor Josef Ben Jochannan, reportedly an authority on African history.

The source stated that the audience was made up of 35 to 40 Negroes and about 25 white people who in addition to Madole and Hoff, mentioned above, included Dan Burros, Ed Cassidy, Douglas Kaye, the three of whom wore NRP uniforms, Walter Cross, Jim Bogen, Dave O'Donnell, Marty Dowd, Charles Smith, Mrs. Grace Madole, Hans Schwithers, Charles Mong, George Von Nosedahl, Evangeline Ordning, Charles Schofer, John S. Sullivan, former National Chairman of the Nationalist Party (NP), Bill Goring and Ernest Elmhurst.

The source stated that John S. Sullivan, mentioned above, stated that the NP has completely disbanded and has been defunct for the past several months.

National Renaissance Party

The source stated that Madole in his speech advocated strongly the separation of the black and white races and stated that the Negro was inferior to the white man. William Hoff in his speech echoed the sentiments of Madole.

Source stated that Mrs. Addison, mentioned above, followed Madole as a speaker and vigorously criticized Madole comparing him and his policies with Adolf Hitler and the Nazi Party. Bishop Addison also spoke in criticism of speeches by Madole and Hoff which called for the separation of the races. According to the source, there was no incidents resulting from the above meeting.

Characterizations of the NRP, NSRP, and NP are attached hereto and the sources mentioned therein have furnished reliable information in the past.

National Renaissance Party

1. NATIONALIST PARTY

On June 28, 1963, [redacted] Bureau of Special Services (BSS), New York City Police Department (NYCPD), advised that the Nationalist Party (NP) was formed on September 21, 1961, and although it has no actual headquarters, continues to maintain a "mail drop" at 507 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

b6
b7C

[redacted] further advised that although LUKE DOMMER has no official title as an officer of the NP, he in actuality controls the activities of the NP.

[redacted] stated that even though activities of the NP consist of anti-communist demonstrations, members of the NP have in the past exhibited anti-semitic sympathies, and stated that LUKE DOMMER mentioned above attended a meeting of the Fighting American Nationalists (FAN) which was held in New York City on December 4, 1960.

On August 2, 1962, a confidential source advised that the NP activities are openly anti-communist. However, this source stated, members of the NP have strong anti-semitic sympathies which they do not reveal openly since they feel disclosure of such sympathies would lose many supporters for the NP.

The above source further advised that the NP continues to join with other organizations in anti-communist demonstrations thereby giving the impression of having a greater membership than it actually has.

National Renaissance Party

1. NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY

On May 9, 1962, a source stated that the National Renaissance Party (NRP) is an anti-Semitic, anti-Christian, anti-Negro and neo-Fascist organization, with activities generally confined to the New York City area. It was founded in 1949 by James H. Madole, who is in complete control of the Party. The Party's main function is distribution of the "National Renaissance Bulletin" on a bi-monthly basis and distribution of pro-Arab literature obtained from official Arab establishments in New York City.

The source further stated that the headquarters for the NRP is located in the residence of James H. Madole at 10 West 90th Street, New York City.

The Un-American Activities Committee of the United States House of Representatives in a Preliminary Report, dated December 17, 1954, stated, "National Renaissance Party activities and propaganda are clearly subversive and un-American."

National Renaissance Party

1. NATIONAL STATES RIGHTS PARTY (NSRP)

On November 28, 1957, a source advised that the United White Party (UWP) was organized at a convention held in Knoxville, Tennessee, on November 10, 1957. An article in the November 26, 1957, issue of the "Greenville Piedmont", a newspaper of Greenville, South Carolina, reported "the recent formation of a new political party to be known as the United White Party." According to the article, the party was formed at a recently held meeting in Knoxville, Tennessee, at which many klansmen were represented. The UWP was reported as being opposed to all "race mixing organizations and individuals."

The July, 1958, issue of "The Thunderbolt", self-described as the "official Racial Nationalist Organ of the National States Rights Party" (NSRP) reported that rank and file "States Righters" had merged with the UWP under "the banner of the National States Rights Party", with national offices at Post Office Box 261, Jeffersonville, Indiana.

In November, 1958, a source advised that the NSRP is composed of past members of klan-type organizations and notorious anti-Semites.

Issues Number 19, dated June, 1960, "The Thunderbolt", announced the address of the headquarters of the NSRP had been changed from Jeffersonville, Indiana to Post Office 783, Birmingham, Alabama.

On June 17, 1960, a source advised that EDWARD R. FIELDS, the Information Director of the NSRP, is the individual who "runs the NSRP."

"The Thunderbolt" continues to publish articles attacking Negroes and persons of the Jewish faith.

Gentlemen:

I am writing in concern to information on the numerous Fascist parties in America, such as the American Nazi Party, National Renaissance Party, and many others.

I have seen and heard much of Madole's N. R. P., and even been to their infamous Yorkville rally in May and was quite disturbed. As you know they were in August 1963 arrested on charges of conspiracy and anarchy. Yet what was done to prevent their reaching this dangerous point where they were quite liable to kill.

Also I have seen Rockwell's disgusting trash. And his cronies are a danger as well as all fascists.

What is being done about these would-be murderers. Are they being persecuted as the Communists are. Please let me know. And what I may do in the effort to help crass their threat to the welfare of our country.

Thank you.

Yours truly,

Re: National Renaissance Party
RACIAL MATTERS

On December 13, 1963, a source with whom contact has been insufficient to determine his reliability furnished information that at 3:00 p.m. on Sunday, December 15, 1963, James E. Madole, leader of the National Renaissance Party (NRP), was scheduled to appear as one of the speakers on "a panel of black and white segregationist leaders" who were going to speak on the "hidden facts behind the struggle for Negro equality".

The place listed for Madole's appearance on December 15, 1963, was the African International Church, 3802 Third Avenue, Bronx 27, New York.

Also listed as speakers with Madole were Archbishop Gleason C. Addison, "Foremost black segregationist leader in the United States"; Dr. Robert Lee Johnson, graduate of Cambridge University, "leading exponent of black nationalism"; James T. Smith, Vice President of African Nationalists, Incorporated, "leader in the fight against exploitation of black by Jewish merchants and alien lords".

According to the source, the topic of Madole's speech was to be "United Nationalist Front Against Race Mixing and Domestic Communism".

On December 15, 1963, this same source advised that the aforementioned panel discussion took place as scheduled and lasted from 3:00 p.m. to approximately 5:00 p.m.

The course stated that the speech consisted of heavy criticism of the Senate through passage of the Federal Reserve Act and income tax law and criticized control over the operations of the United States Government. He also stated that the separation of the white and black races.

The other speakers, according to the course, were identified with the National Socialist movement and advocated that the United States Government should pass legislation to give them grants of money so they might return to Africa and establish their own government.

The course further stated that the speeches of the others, aside from the one, were illogical and difficult to understand.

The course stated there were approximately 40 people in attendance about evenly divided between white and Negro.

A characterization of the National Socialist Party (Nazi) is attached hereto and the course mentioned should be furnished reliable information in the past.

NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY

On July 16, 1963, a source stated that the National Renaissance Party (NRP) is an anti-Semitic, anti-Christian, anti-Negro and neo-Fascist organization, with activities generally confined to the New York City area. It was founded in 1960, by James H. Haddox, who is complete control of the party. The party's main function is distribution of the National Renaissance Bulletin as a bi-monthly paper and distribution of pro-Arab literature obtained from official Arab establishments in New York City.

The source further stated that the headquarters for the National Renaissance Party (NRP) is located in the residence of James H. Haddox, 10 West 30th Street, New York City.

The Bi-American Activities Committee of the United States House of Representatives in a Preliminary Report dated December 17, 1974, stated National Renaissance Party (NRP) activities and propaganda are clearly subversive and un-American.

ReNYlet to Bureau, 11/22/63.

On 1/9/64, [redacted]
Bureau of Special Services, NYCPD, advised that the eight National Renaissance Party (NRP) members who were arrested by the NYCPD on 7/14/63 were subsequently indicted by the Bronx County Grand Jury on charges of advocating criminal anarchy, attempted riot, violation of Public Law 1897
(carrying firearms), and subdivisions of Public
Law 3 and 8 (carrying weapons).

[redacted] that on a motion made by their attorneys the charge of attempted riot was dismissed in New York State Supreme Court.
On 12/16/63, a new indictment was returned against the eight defendants charging them with riot under Section 2090 of the Penal Law of the State of New York and warrants for their arrest under this new indictment were issued.

However, [redacted] advised that the District Attorney, Bronx County, New York has instructed the NYCPD not to serve these arrest warrants until the eight defendants make their next appearance in court on the original charges with the exception of attempted riot.

[redacted] further advised that the eight will receive subpoenas to appear in court at some future date but as yet no date has been set for their appearance. In the meantime, the defendants continue on bail. The bail is $7,500 for JAMES H. MADOLE, NRP leader, and $5,000 each for the other seven defendants.

On December 31, 1963, a source, who furnished reliable information in the past, advised that a meeting was recently held in New Paltz, New York, which was attended by Tony Wells of the American Nazi Party (ANP); Betty Shepherd of the National Citizens Union; William Hoff of the National States Rights Party (NSRP), James H. Madole and Paul Joachim of the National Renaissance Party (NRP), and George Tsontarides of Tillson, New York. According to the source, about fifteen people attended this meeting, the exact time and place of which was unknown.

The source advised that the purpose of the meeting was to discuss the purchase of a farm which would be used as a headquarters for all racial organizations and where Madole and others would reside. The source stated that Madole has frequently expressed a desire to get out of New York City.

The source was unable to furnish any more specific information other than that the farm consists of a house with fifteen rooms, a barn and other buildings. The location of the farm is unknown to the source.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. It is the property of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

AMERICAN NAZI PARTY OF THE WORLD UNION OF FREE ENTERPRISE NATIONAL SOCIALISTS, ALSO KNOWN AS THE GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL PARTY

In his book "This Time The World," copyrighted in 1961, GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL identified himself as Commander, American Nazi Party of the World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP - WUFENS), Arlington, Virginia.

The April 4, 1963, issue of "The Richmond News Leader," a Richmond, Virginia, newspaper, reported that GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL had, on the previous day, again applied for the American Nazi Party to be chartered in the State of Virginia, but this request was turned down by the Virginia State Corporation Commission. This action was taken pursuant to an act of the 1962 Virginia Assembly which prohibits the use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia charter. This article further pointed out that ROCKWELL'S party is presently chartered in the State of Virginia as the George Lincoln Rockwell Party.

On August 19, 1963, a source advised that the ANP - WUFENS was organized by GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL at his residence in Arlington, Virginia, on February 26, 1959, as an international "National Socialist" movement based on the German Nazi Party headed by ADOLF HITLER. He added that ROCKWELL is the dominant force and personality in this party; that he is espousing a "line" of hatred against the Jews and Negroes; and that he is seeking through speeches, distribution of literature and picketing, to establish a cohesive and dominant political party in the United States and in foreign countries.

According to the "Stormtrooper's Manual," an official publication of the American Nazi Party, the phases of ANP struggle for power are fourfold, namely, first, "to make ourselves known to the masses"; second, "the dissemination of our program and the truth about the Party"; third, "organizing the people who have been converted to our propaganda"; and, fourth, "the attainment of power through the votes of the newly-won masses."

NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY (NRP)

On July 16, 1963, a source stated that the NRP is an anti-Semitic, anti-Christian, anti-Negro and neo-Fascist organization, with activities generally confined to the New York City area. It was founded in 1949, by James H. Madole, who is in complete control of the party. The party's main function is distribution of the National Renaissance Bulletin on a bi-monthly basis and distribution of pro-Arab literature obtained from official Arab establishments in New York City.

The source further stated that the headquarters for the NRP is located in the residence of James H. Madole at 10 West 90th Street, New York City.

The Un-American Activities Committee of the United States House of Representatives in a Preliminary Report dated December 17, 1954, stated NRP activities and propaganda are clearly subversive and un-American.

NATIONAL STATES RIGHTS PARTY (NSRP)

On November 26, 1957, a source advised that the United White Party (UWP) was organized at a convention held in Knoxville, Tennessee, on November 10, 1957. An article in the November 26, 1957 issue of the "Greenville Piedmont", a newspaper of Greenville, South Carolina, reported "the recent formation of a new political party, to be known as the "United White Party". According to the article, the party was formed at a recently held meeting in Knoxville, Tennessee at which many klansmen were represented. The UWP was reported as being opposed to all "race mixing organizations and individuals".

The July, 1958 issue of "The Thunderbolt", self-described as the "official Racial Nationalist Organ of the National States Rights Party"(NSRP), reported that rank and file "States Righters" had merged with the UWP under "the banner of the National States Rights Party" with national offices at Post Office Box 261, Jefferson, Indiana.

In November, 1958 a source advised that the NSRP is composed of past members of klan-type organizations and notorious anti-Semites.

Issue Number 19, dated June, 1960, "The Thunderbolt", announced the address of the headquarters of the NSRP had been changed from Jeffersonville, Indiana to Post Office Box 738, Birmingham, Alabama.

On June 17, 1960, a source advised that Edward R. Fields, the Information Director of the NSRP, is the individual who "runs the NSRP".

"The Thunderbolt" continues to publish articles attacking Negroes and persons of the Jewish faith.

Dear Mr. Carstens:

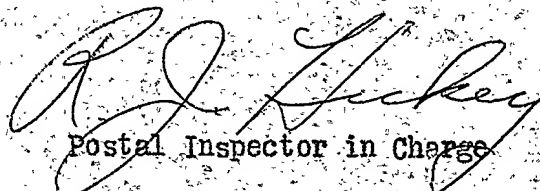

Receipt is acknowledged of your letter of January 2, 1964, initials HC:pc, accompanied by literature received by you from The National Renaissance Party and the Truth Seeker.

While it is regretted that the mails are used from time to time for the dissemination of matter critical of religions, races and political views, there is no violation involved under current postal laws, particularly if sent under cover of envelopes with nothing objectionable appearing on the outside.

Any further material received from this source may be endorsed "Refused" and returned to your carrier or post office for disposition.

As possible subversive matters come within the purview of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, we are taking the liberty of forwarding the literature submitted to the Special Agent in Charge of that Bureau, 201 East 69th Street, New York, N.Y. 10021, for his information and any further attention deemed appropriate.

Sincerely yours,

AMERICAN NAZI PARTY (ANP);

The following information was provided on January 23, 1964, by a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past.

A usually reliable source reported on January 3, 1964, that the NRP and the ANP and other unidentified racist groups planned to consolidate all groups under the leadership of James Madole of the NRP and planned to buy property in the Newburgh, New York, area in order to hold meetings and conduct training there. The liaison man for that area was to be Frank Birdsall, who was alleged to own a fence company and to be in a position to employ approximately five members.

(Characterizations of the ANP and NRP appear in the Appendix hereto.)

The first source mentioned above stated that the files of a state investigative agency disclosed the following information:

Files of the New York City Police Department, Bureau of Special Services, on January 3, 1964, revealed that Frank Birdsall, together with Betty Shepherd, William Hoff, John Maher, Jr., and Ian Lehr were sponsors of the New York Committee to Defend Floyd Simpson, Post Office Box 191, New York 28, New York.

Files of the New York State Department of Motor Vehicles, Albany, New York, disclosed the following information:

Frank D. Birdsall, 96 Overlook Place, Newburgh, New York, born July 27, 1936, white, male, 5'11", brown eyes. 1963-66 Chauffeur's Renewal License #B-09652-66338-934953; issued May 16, 1963, expires May 31, 1966.

These files contained a registration for a 1948 green Studebaker pickup truck bearing Commercial Registration Number 736-489 (1963), Tab Number 9188046. This vehicle was registered to Birdsall with the business address 102 South Lander Street, Newburgh, New York.

Also registered to Birdsall was a 1956 red and black Ford sedan bearing 1963 registration DOC-23, Tab #1102239. This registration reflected Birdsall to be self-employed, Post Office Box 2272, West Newburgh, New York; Mastic Tile Corporation, North Montgomery Street, Newburgh, New York.

Arrest records on file at the Bureau of Identification, Troop "K", New York State Police (NYSP), Hawthorne, New York, on January 13, 1964, revealed that Birdsall was arrested on May 30, 1959, with one John Francis Cavanaugh for burglary third degree. They were convicted of unlawful entry and petty larceny. Birdsall was sentenced to six months in the county jail, sentence suspended and placed on probation. Also, Birdsall was indicted and arraigned for attempted extortion on November 8, 1959. This indictment was dismissed on a motion of the District Attorney on February 19, 1960.

Investigation disclosed that Post Office Box 2272 was listed to Frank D. Birdsall, 96 Overlook Place, Newburgh, New York, believed to be the owner of the Superior Fence Company at the same address.

The Orange County Credit Bureau, Liberty Street, Newburgh, New York, reported that Birdsall is a partner with one Walter R. Staples in the Superior Fence Company, Post Office Box 2272, Newburgh, New York. These records disclosed Birdsall is married to Sylvia Birdsall and has had a number of unfavorable credit accounts. These records also disclosed the following employments for Birdsall:

Kempler Metals, Inc., Newburgh, New York, 1960;

Arundel Fence Company, Newburgh, New York, 1961;

Mastic Tile Company, Newburgh, New York, 1962.

A toll call check of Birdsall's telephone, number 562-6396, for a 90-day period disclosed the following listings:

On an unspecified date in early January, 1964, Frank Birdsall called at the Newburgh, New York, Barracks of the NYSP, at which time he was interviewed by a representative of the NYSP. At that time, Birdsall advised that [redacted] [redacted] and another individual known as Paul (believed to be Paul Joachim) had contacted him on January 5, 1964, at which time he accompanied them to the New Paltz, New York, area where they looked at a farm house containing approximately fifteen rooms. The other three individuals spoke to the owner in the house while Birdsall remained in the car. When the three re-entered the car, in subsequent conversation they indicated they would not purchase the house and property because of the price. Birdsall asserted he could not identify the location of the farm nor the owner. He stated the three individuals returned to New York City and had not been in contact with him since that time.

b7C

Birdsall was requested to advise the NYSP at Newburgh, New York, if these three persons should contact him again. This he refused to do.

AMERICAN NAZI PARTY;
NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY

Birdsall declared he is not a Nazi but described himself instead as a segregationist. He declared that if racist groups should locate in the Orange County, New York, area, he will give jobs to approximately five of them in his fence company during the summer months when business picks up.

Birdsall said he goes to meetings in [redacted] apartment at [redacted] about five times a year. He admitted going to ANP Headquarters in Arlington, Virginia, about one year ago with one John Maher, a former employee residing in the Newburgh area. Birdsall said he was there for about twenty minutes and received a cold reception when he mentioned something about the ANP Commander (George Lincoln Rockwell) and his friend, John Patler, who at that time had split with Rockwell and formed his own party in New York City known as the American National Party. He continued that Patler subsequently rejoined the ANP and was presently serving with Rockwell at Arlington, Virginia.

Birdsall stated he had sent a donation of $20.00 to Patler as a Christmas present. He expressed a desire to become more active in racial activities but said he was limited because of his occupation and residence.

The usually reliable source, mentioned previously, expressed the opinion that Birdsall had telephoned [redacted] following his interview by the NYSP representative because a representative of the ANP in New York City thereafter said that the location for a headquarters at New Paltz, New York, was definitely out and that the group would probably go Upstate again. It was indicated that a location either in Newburgh, New York, or some place south of there would be more favorable.

AMERICAN NAZI PARTY OF THE WORLD UNION OF
FREE ENTERPRISE NATIONAL SOCIALISTS, ALSO KNOWN AS THE
GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL PARTY

In his book "This Time the World," copyrighted in 1961, George Lincoln Rockwell identified himself as Commander, American Nazi Party of the World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP - WUFENS), Arlington, Virginia.

The April 4, 1963 issue of "The Richmond News Leader," a Richmond, Virginia, daily newspaper, reported that George Lincoln Rockwell had, on the previous day, again applied for the American Nazi Party to be chartered in the State of Virginia, but this request was turned down by the Virginia State Corporation Commission. This action was taken pursuant to an act of the 1962 Virginia Assembly which prohibits the use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia charter. This article further pointed out that Rockwell's party is presently chartered in the State of Virginia as the George Lincoln Rockwell Party.

On August 19, 1963, a source advised that the ANP - WUFENS was organized by George Lincoln Rockwell at his residence in Arlington, Virginia on February 26, 1959 as an international "National Socialist" movement based on the German Nazi Party headed by Adolf Hitler. He added that Rockwell is the dominant force and personality in this party; that he is espousing a "line" of hatred against the Jews and Negroes; and that he is seeking, through speeches, distribution of literature, and picketing, to establish a cohesive and dominant political party in the United States and in foreign countries.

On December 13, 1963, this source advised that in about September, 1960, the ANP initiated the Fighting American Nationalists (FAN) as a front group for the ANP although it has never been a separate organization. The source said the FAN name is merely used on occasion instead of the ANP name and there are no separate officials for FAN, the FAN officials being identical with the ANP officials. He stated that George Lincoln Rockwell has informed him the FAN name was originally used as a device to attract supporters to his organization who might rebel at the use of the swastika and at being labeled as a Nazi.

He added that the ANP has operated under the FAN name throughout the country with the exception of a group operating under the FAN name in Baltimore, Maryland. He said the FAN group in Baltimore is now, and always has been, a separate organization and not a part of the ANP.

On October 3, 1963, [REDACTED]

advised that the Baltimore FAN, which was organized in the Spring of 1961, has no official connection with the ANP although until December, 1962, it received all its literature from George Lincoln Rockwell's ANP.

b6
b7C

According to the "Stormtrooper's Manual," an official publication of the ANP, the phases of ANP struggle for power are fourfold, namely, first "to make ourselves known to the masses"; second, "the dissemination of our program and the truth about the Party"; third, "organizing the people who have been converted to our propaganda" and fourth, "that attainment of power through the votes of the newly-won masses."

NATIONAL RENAISSANCE PARTY (NRP)

On April 21, 1959, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that the NRP was an anti-Semitic, anti-Negro, neo-fascist organization with activities generally confined to the New York City area. It was founded in 1949 by James H. Madole, who is in complete control of the Party. The Party's main function is distribution of the National Renaissance Bulletin on a monthly basis and distribution of pro-Arab literature obtained from official Arab establishments in New York City.

The Un-American Activities Committee of the United States House of Representatives in a preliminary report dated December 17, 1954, stated, "NRP activities and propaganda are clearly subversive and un-American."

On January 21, 1964, a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that on Sunday, January 19, 1964, from 3:00 pm to 7:00 pm, a "rally to support racial segregation and black nationalism" was held at the African Universal Church, 3802 Third Avenue, Bronx, New York, with about 20 white people and 25-30 Negroes in attendance, with about 12 of the latter group being children of grammar school age.

Among the whites in attendance were: James H. Madole, leader of the National Renaissance Party (NRP); his mother, Grace Madole; Dan Burros and Edward Cassidy, both of whom wore khaki uniforms with NRP insignia; John Graves, attorney for James H. Madole; Anthony Vattay; Jim Bogen; Marty Dowd; Charles Brittain, segregationist from Maryland; George Von Nosedahl; Joseph and Mrs. Hodges; Alice Geis; Evangeline Ordning; 2 unidentified middle-aged females; 4 unidentified males, 2 of whom were over 60 years of age; and 2 of whom were in their late 20's. According to the source, one of the latter two individuals drove a Volkswagen with California plates GTX 590.

The source stated that the following spoke:

Archbishop Clarence C. Addison, "foremost black segregationist in America" and his wife, Mrs. Addison; Dan Burros, NRP member; James H. Madole, NRP leader; and John Graves, attorney for James H. Madole.

The speeches consisted of anti-Semitic attacks on "Jew-dominated organizations" which were seeking "to destroy and mongrelize both the black and white races" and also urged those in attendance to support racial segregation and black nationalism.

John Graves called the pending trial of James H. Madole and his followers "nonsense" and stated that black nationalists will testify at Madole's trial to show that segregationists are not un-American.

It is noted that 8 individuals associated with the NRP were arrested by the New York City Police Department on July 14, 1963, and were subsequently indicted by the Bronx County Grand Jury on charges of advocating criminal anarchy, attempted riot, violation of Public Law 1897 (carrying firearms), and subdivisions of Public Law 3 and 8 (carrying weapons.)

Dear Sir:

Since subversive activities come within the purview of your Bureau, we are taking the liberty of forwarding the attached circular, mailed by the National Renaissance Party to various patrons in the Mountain Lakes, N.J. 07046, area, to you for such action and attention as you deem appropriate.

Sincerely yours,

Postal Inspector in ChargeEnc.

Rev. D. M. Roth
Ridgewood Presbyterian Church
70-21 Forest Avenue
Brooklyn, N.Y. 11227

Dear Reverend Roth:

The postmaster at Brooklyn, N.Y., has submitted the hate literature received by you to this Service.

While it is regretted that the mails are used from time to time for the dissemination of matter critical of religions, races and political views, there is no violation involved under current postal laws, particularly if sent under cover of envelopes with nothing objectionable appearing on the outside.

Since possible subversive activities come within the purview of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, we are taking the liberty of forwarding the literature to the Special Agent in Charge of that Bureau, 201 East 69th Street, New York, N.Y. 10021.

Your cooperation in presenting this matter for our attention is appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

R. J. Lickey
Postal Inspector in Charge
